

Disclosure

Occasionally in the accompanying documents for each Mormon Tea episode, you will find links to companies that we endorse for their superior products, ethics and environmental awareness. Some of these are affiliate links, which means that if you click on them and make a purchase, we earn a small commission to help support our website, and in particular our Mormon Tea program. You are under no obligation to use these links; however, we are very grateful for those who do!

To be clear, these are the affiliates that we have personally chosen to endorse:

■ My Miracle Tea

■ Healthy Buyer's Club

Includes Tropical Traditions, Grass-Fed Traditions, and Household Traditions

NOTE: If you order by clicking on any of our links and have never ordered from Tropical Traditions in the past, you will receive a free book on Virgin Coconut Oil, and we will receive a discount coupon for referring you.

More to come!
